

University of New Hampshire
Franklin Pierce School of Law

International Criminal Law & Justice Program

Become a leader in fighting cross-border crime.

Albert "Buzz" Scherr

Professor and Chair, International Criminal Law & Justice Programs

“ Every professional who works with or in the criminal justice system of a country will encounter transnational crime. It is an area of the law that is expanding exponentially. This program gives professionals the unique training they need to succeed and stand out in an expanding area of the law.

Practical training taught by global experts.

SAMPLE COURSES

- Cybercrime
- Drugs & Weapons Trafficking
- Human Trafficking
- International White-Collar Crime
- Piracy & Terrorism
- International Criminal Law
- International Legal Research
- Comparative Criminal Justice Systems
- Intellectual Property Crimes

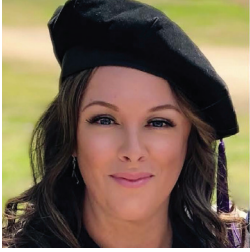

Advance your career with the only online transnational crime program from an ABA accredited law school.

Program Highlights

- 100% Online
- Flexible
Full & Part-time Options
- January & August Start Dates

law.unh.edu

On the leading edge.

Natalie Tackaberry

2019 LL.M. in International Criminal Law & Justice graduate, currently serving as a Contracting Officer Representative at U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs in Washington, DC

“The ICLJ program has helped me immensely with my career. Thanks to my advanced knowledge of international law, I have started working with The Advocates for Human Rights on U.N. submissions and other rule of law issues. In addition, I am frequently contacted by other professionals because of my ICLJ degree from UNH Franklin Pierce School of Law.”

Isabel Blanchard

2019 LL.M. in International Criminal Law & Justice graduate, currently serving as Assistant Crown Attorney at the Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General in Ontario, Canada

“The LL.M. in International Criminal Law & Justice at UNH Franklin Pierce School of Law provided me with the incredible experience of exchange of knowledge and ideas on complex and important legal issues of international concern. It equipped me with a comprehensive understanding of Criminal International Law from a global perspective. This program complimented my daily role as a criminal prosecutor.”

Ian Courts

2022 LL.M. in International Criminal Law & Justice graduate, currently serving as an Associate Attorney at Landman Corsi Ballaine & Ford P.C. in Philadelphia, PA

“People who desire to learn and grow as a professional, especially in the field of international criminal law should consider the ICLJ program because it is innovative, challenging, and prepares you for a scholastic and practical career in global criminal law and justice.”

Program Information

DEGREE OPTIONS

- Master of Laws (LL.M.) - 24 Credits
- Master's Degree - 30 Credits

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Online application
- Resume
- Personal statement
- Academic transcripts
- Two letters of recommendation
- GRE not required
- TOEFL or IELTS

TUITION & FEES

- $1,310/credit hour
- Scholarships available

Who is this program for?

- Military personnel
- Local and federal law enforcement
- International business professionals
- NGO leaders
- Nonprofit executives & managers

Contact Us

Sarah Dorner

Director of Graduate and International Admissions
sarah.dorner@law.unh.edu
603-513-5173
WhatsApp: +16035135300

Office of Admissions
Two White Street
Concord, NH 03301

law.unh.edu