

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE LAW REVIEW

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

University of New Hampshire

The Warren B. Rudman Center for Justice, Leadership & Public Service

2026 SYMPOSIUM

Democracy in Practice:
LAW, ELECTIONS, AND CIVIC PARTICIPATION

Join leading scholars, practitioners, and civic leaders for a timely discussion on the legal frameworks, electoral processes, and civic engagement shaping our democracy today.

OUR PANELISTS

Brendan O'Donnell

Brendan O'Donnell is the current Deputy Secretary of State for New Hampshire, and he previously led the N.H. Attorney General's Office Election Law Unit.

Anna Brown

Anna Brown is Executive Director of the Warren B. Rudman Center for Justice, Leadership, & Public Service and a founding member of the New Hampshire Civic Learning Coalition. She is one of New Hampshire's foremost experts on state government and policy.

Jonathan Kipp

Jonathan Kipp has served as Londonderry Town
Moderator since 2020.
He holds a B.S. in Business Administration and a master's in Public Administration, both from UNH.

Dante Scala

Dante Scala is Professor of Political Science at the University of New Hampshire.

Register Here

FRIDAY,
OCTOBER 2, 2026

3:00 PM – 5:00 PM

ROOM 282

UNH FRANKLIN PIERCE
SCHOOL OF LAW
2 White Street
Concord, NH 03301